1. The Officers' Infantry School Number 1 and a Related Personality Sketch
(Oficerska Szkoła Piechoty Nr. 1.)

This school was located in WROCLAW. (See Annex B for approximate location) in 1957, the Commandant of the School was

25X1

an unidentified infantry colonel

a. Mission

The mission of the school was to train cadets as regular army infantry officers. The duration of this course was three years. The school also had advanced courses for company and field grade officers (Kursy Doksztalcania %Oficerow). The length of these additional courses was unknown.

b. Instructors

The instructors were picked from the ranks of regular army officers who were specialists in certain military fields, had good diction, and the capability to instruct and handle personnel. New instructors were given on-the-job training for approximately one year. Later they were advanced to junior instructors (Mlodzi Wykladowcy) and served in that capacity from two to three years. Later they became senior instructors (Starsi Wykladowcy). The school also had regular army NCO's who aided the officer-instructors in their work.

c. Student Body

However, [] not know how many students were assigned to the school. [] the school was overcrowded and [] the facilities on hand were not adequate to handle the students.

d. Medical Care

The students received a yearly physical examination in addition to weekly visual examinations for skin infections and venereal diseases. Typhoid booster shots and other necessary inoculations were given every six months or when deemed necessary.

e. Leaves and Passes

First year students were given two weeks leave after completing the first year at the school. Second year students were given two weeks leave after completing the second year at the school. An unknown number of students were given week-end passes every week.

f. Morale

The overall morale of the students was low due to excessive instructions and studies and continual harassment of those who lagged in their studies. The students who fell behind in their studies were given extra duties to perform, as punishment for lagging behind.

g. Officers' Infantry School Number 1 Badge (See Annex C)

This badge was worn on the left breast pocket of the uniform by all cadre officers, student officers, and cadets attending the school.
